"PERSECUTION," SAYS M'CALL IN HIS ANSWER TO CHARGES

Says He Gave Light Stock to Wife Before Becoming Chairman of P. S. Board, and All His Acts Were Legal.

The answer of Chairman Edward F. McCall of the Public Service Commission to the charges of the Thompson Committee...

McCall's answer is in the shape of a condensed brief and appeal, covering 100 printed pages. He takes the ground that he has been persecuted and maligned by the Thompson Committee...

On the main point—the ownership of 37 shares in the Kings County Electric Light and Power Company—Chairman McCall takes the stand that his behavior in this matter was perfectly legal and legitimate.

After alluding to the "abysmal ignorance" of the members of the Thompson Committee and claiming that the entire proceeding was manipulated with the design to produce newspaper publicity, Chairman McCall alludes to the fact that the stock was placed in the name of John Mackin...

"The fact that prior to my appointment as Chairman I held this stock in the name of John Mackin, or John Smith, or Peter Jones, or any one else was not pertinent to the inquiry of the Committee, and was none of its concern."

and the purpose of this investigation is to determine whether or not the Chairman says that it is untrue and the Committee knows it is untrue to state that he participated in the determination of this case...

DEFENSE HIS VOTE FOR THIRD AVENUE REPAIR ORDER. The Chairman denies this charge. The assumption underlying it is that because he voted with his colleagues...

DEFENSE HIS USE OF CITY AUTOMOBILE. As to the specification that he had appropriated to his own use an automobile belonging to the city, had received the Public Service Commission's letter setting forth his previous connection with the fact that Mr. Goodman's letter did not contain with the Chairman's previous no objection...

"NO UNNECESSARY DELAY IN RATE CASES." Taking up the charges of interference with hearings before other Commission boards, Chairman McCall alleges that he permitted an adjournment and hearing before Commissioner Matine to a date subsequent to the expiration of the statute...

REALLY AT WORK WHEN NOT ATTENDING MEETINGS. The Chairman takes up the various specifications of this charge in order. As to the charge that he failed to attend meetings and hearings, he enters a denial and says that the minutes of the Commission show his attendance at formal meetings...

DENIES TAKING RETAINERS FOR PRIVATE PRACTICE. As to the specification that he accepted a retainer and rendered legal services to a corporation seeking to pay off taxes, the chief owner of such corporation being a controlling factor in the management of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, the Chairman denies the charge...

AMEN CORNER WILL DINE. To-night at the Waldorf-Astoria the Brethren of the Amen Corner will hold their fifteenth anniversary dinner. It is the expectation of those concerned that the affair will be a greater success than any previous dinner of the organization.
